Wolfe Loses Last Chance; Waits Death

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A drifter who raped a child sat in his lonely cell at Missouri Penitentiary today, waiting for death.

Ronald Lee Wolfe, 33, lost his last chance for life when Lt. Gov. Hiliary A. Bush, acting governor, declined to interfere with the death sentence.

Wolfe was convicted in 1959 of luring an eight-year-old girl from a church picnic at Troy, Mo., with an offer of candy, and raping her. That was three days after he was released from federal prison at Atlanta, Ga.

The next day he was arrested at Hannibal, Mo., still driving the car he had stolen at Decatur, Ill., after his release from Atlanta.

Since then both state and federal courts have turned down repeated pleas to review his case or grant a new trial.

The final effort came Wednesday when his attorneys petitioned Bush to appoint a board of inquiry to investigate Wolfe's mental condition.

They said they were convinced he was a borderline mental case "with a psychopathic personality which impels him toward acts beyond his power to control."

They said they had evidence he was under the influence of narcotics at the time of the crime and did not have full control of himself.

Bush turned down the request. He concluded all those points had been determined in court appeals.

Gov. John M. Dalton, who is in Europe, rejected a similar plea earlier.

Warden E. W. Nash will trip the lever a few seconds after midnight tonight, sending lethal gas fumes to end Wolfe's life.

Protest Drugging Of 3 Attaches In Soviet Union

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. Embassy in Moscow has protested to the Soviets that three American military attaches were drugged while on a trip to Odessa, the State Department disclosed today.

Press officer Robert J. McCloskey, reporting the incident, gave few details and did not attempt to give a reason for the action.

Without naming the men, he said two assistant naval attaches and one assistant air attaché were drugged with mild effect while on a trip to the Black Sea port March 24-26. They were not harmed.

Weeds, Mains Discussed

Park Maintenance Review by Board

Park maintenance, weeds and water mains came under discussion at the regular meeting of the Sedalia Board of Public Works at the Water Department offices Wednesday night.

The discussion on park maintenance was prompted by a story that appeared in The Sedalia Democrat Wednesday, in which it was reported a group of young people had abandoned the idea of having a picnic at Covered Bridge Park because the park was littered with debris.

An investigation into the matter revealed that at the time the group must have inspected the park, apparently more than one week ago, the Water Department, which owns and operates the park, had not completed the annual spring clean-up job. This has now been done and the park is in fair condition.

The board fully accepted the responsibility for maintaining the park as a public ground, and discussed the problem of maintaining the cleanliness necessary if the park is to be used by the public. It was brought out that the park is cleaned up daily by Water Department maintenance men from the pumping station just across the road, and that each day the men pick up barrels of litter and debris left by picnickers and persons who enter the park after it is "closed" at night.

Bill Bunn, board member, went so far as to say he would go along with the employment of an additional man just to keep the park up, if this should become necessary. He explained, "If we are going to maintain the park for the public, we

Small Black Dog Sought By Police

Chief of Police William Miller and poundmaster Earl Paxton today appealed to the public in an effort to contact the owner of a small black dog which bit 11-year-old Linda Becker, C-58 Saturn, outside of Bing's No. 1 Supermarket about 3 p.m. Wednesday afternoon.

"We want to stress that we don't want to arrest the owner or destroy the dog," Miller said. "We just want to find out if the animal had been vaccinated for rabies. Otherwise the little girl will probably be required to take a series of rabies shots, which are expensive as well as painful."

Linda's mother, Mrs. Thomas Becker, reported the dog bite to police. The girl was treated at Bothwell Hospital by Dr. Carl Siegel and released after treatment. She was bitten on the hand.

Miller said police investigation indicated the dog's owner was a woman, about 37 years of age, average build with black hair. She was presumed to have filled or refilled a prescription at the pharmacy at the supermarket. (Please turn to page 4, col. 1)

44 Dead In Crash

Plane Plunge In California

CONCORD, Calif. (AP) — Forty-four persons died today in the diving crash of a Pacific Airlines plane in rolling coast range foothills 40 miles east of San Francisco.

Witnesses said the Fairchild twin-engine airliner appeared to plunge straight down. The FBI said it received reports that a smoke puff from one of the plane's engines was seen just before it crashed.

A spokesman for Pacific Airlines said the plane carried 40 passengers, a crew of three, and a Federal Aviation Agency observer.

Thirty-one passengers had boarded at Reno and nine others at Stockton, Calif., on Pacific's daily Flight 773 from Reno to San Francisco.

Pacific Airlines operates in California, Oregon, and Nevada.

The crash was Pacific Airlines third in 21 years of operations. Twenty-three lives were lost in a 1951 crash near Santa Barbara. A copilot was killed in a takeoff crash at Santa Maria, Calif., in 1959.

George M. Galvin, assistant to the airlines president, said Capt. Ernest Clark was the pilot. The first officer was R. Andrews and the stewardess Marge Schafer.

He said the passenger list was not available.

A Tasaero rancher, Gordon Rassmussen, said the "plane exploded into small bits. There wasn't a piece larger than a foot in diameter, except for the landing gear, after it hit."

Rassmussen said he saw the plane coming in and that it "faltered, there was a puff of smoke and it crashed a mile from my ranch."

The air controller's office at Oakland International Airport said the plane abruptly disappeared from its radar scopes. Sheriff's officers closed off the area where wreckage was scattered widely.

The wreckage did not burn.

Dead is Walter Cohan, 20, of Rt. 1, Columbia. The other cyclist, Peter Gustav Schmidt, 23, of Columbia, was hospitalized with lacerations and bruises. The crash took place on U.S. 63 three miles south of here.

First Hurdle Passed On Civil Rights

Close Call Vote On Amendment For Jury Trials

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate sponsors of the civil rights bill have won their first test of strength, but it was a close call.

After four roll calls Wednesday night—one a 45-45 tie—the Senate rejected 46 to 45 a jury trial amendment to the measure.

The votes were the first on any of the nearly 100 amendments offered to the House-passed bill since the Senate's civil rights debate began on March 9.

The defeated amendment, called up by Sen. Thruston B. Morton, R-Ky., would have provided for jury trials in criminal contempt of court cases arising out of antidiscrimination injunctions authorized by the bill.

It was opposed by the Johnson administration and the bill's sponsors, both Democrats and Republicans.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., leader of the Southern forces, said a variation of it is likely to be offered next week in an effort to reverse the outcome.

"I was disappointed in the vote," he said. "I thought we had enough to carry it. But the pressures were too great."

The vote was a bit too close for comfort for the other side. Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel, GOP floor manager for the bill, called it distressing.

Unauthorized Strike

Railroad Firemen In Job Walkout

WASHINGTON (AP)—A walk-out of railroad firemen hit the nation's largest trainyard today. A union spokesman said "we considered it a lockout."

The latest flareup on one of the major issues in the five-year national railroad work rules dispute came as a long-delayed federal arbitration ruling went into effect, permitting elimination of thousands of firemen's jobs.

It came despite a restraining order against a strike, issued here Tuesday by U.S. Dist. Judge Alexander Holtzoff.

J. E. Wolfe, chief negotiator for the nation's major railroads, warned: "We will take decisive action immediately to see that the law, the court decisions, and Judge Holtzoff's restraining order are complied with."

A spokesman for H. E. Gilbert, president of the AFL-CIO Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, said union pickets set up lines at the Pennsylvania Railroad's Conaway yards near Pittsburgh only after the railroad "abolished all but 10 per cent of the jobs."

But, he said, the strike at the Conway yards and on two Illinois railroads were unauthorized. Later the walkouts in Illinois were called off.

"We are trying to get them to go back to work. We are trying to prevent it from spreading across the country," he said.

The new railroad labor dispute arose less than three weeks after President Johnson won from the railroads and five train operating unions a general agreement that is now being written into contract language.

The firemen are one of the Hospitality Wins Japanese Friends

THREE YOUNG Japanese good will ambassadors on a motor tour of the United States found hospitality in Sedalia Wednesday night and Thursday unlike any they have encountered since they set out from Los Angeles April 26.

The trio, two students of Nihon University in Tokyo and the other of the Tokyoodo Shoes & Bags Co., is calling on 18 governors on behalf of the governor of Tokyo. They carry with them a special envelope addressed to each of the governors, including Gov. John M. Dalton of Missouri. They were scheduled to visit the state capital this afternoon, however, Gov. Dalton is understood to be on a tour in Europe all this week, and Lt. Gov. Hiliary Bush is to receive them.

The envelopes contain special greetings from the Japanese people and the message calls for continued good relations and understanding between the two nations.

Thinjiro Okada, 26, a graduate of Nihon University, is in charge of the good will force composed of Youichi Saito and Hiroshi Yamazaki, both 21.

Okada speaks some English and was apologetic for his lack of ability to make himself thoroughly understood and fully explain details of the trio's trip. But all three were more at ease when told they were speaking better English than we could speak Japanese.

They arrived in Los Angeles by air April 23 after a big send off by the Japanese press and were interviewed by three newsmen during their three day stay in the City of Angels, but encountered only one newsmen between Los Angeles and Sedalia. They received no story from that one. As result, the boys appeared somewhat disappointed in the absence of press clippings to send home.

Their route to Sedalia took them through Las Vegas, Denver and Kansas City. Okada explained that they were not particularly looking for any publicity—their mission: to call on 18 governors and return home after delivering the messages.

Moving to American Engineering Plant

Trailer Firm Expands to New Site

The Classic Trailer Manufacturing Company, a subsidiary of Reinhart-Welch, Inc., in business since last September in the basement of the Reinhart-Welch building on South Highway 65, will move to the American Engineering building this weekend.

The company, makes pickup truck coaches—eight and a half and ten and a half foot lengths—and trailer campers, 14 and 18 foot self contained trailers. Also pickup truck covers are custom made by the firm.

The new building, 50 by 200 feet with 10,000 square feet of space, will have two assembly lines down the center with the stock material between the lines and machinery on the north side.

In another smaller building will be the welding shop, 24 by 100 feet with 2,400 square feet of space including the offices. The large office is carpeted with small ceramic beige tile walls and paneling.

There are 15 people working in the present Reinhart-Welch building, but when the operation hits full swing in the new building, Reinhart said, we expect to have about 50 people employed in the large building and seven or eight in the welding shop.

The buildings are on a plot 310 by 275 feet, and there is room for further expansion.

It was after Reinhart came back from World War II that he started a business in sales of refrigeration equipment and about ten years ago sold an interest to John W. Welch. The firm was then located in the old Alquist Bakery building on South Ohio. They later bought the hardware store on Highway 65 South, and bought the building where they now have a warehouse, sales store, office and manufacturing department. Since the air conditioning and refrigeration items took so much of the time, along with manufacturing they had started, Reinhart and Welch went out of the hardware business and sold their store building at Tenth and South Limit (now T&G Motors).

At the present time they are turning out three trailer campers a week, and are unable to meet demands. When they move into the new place they expect to turn out two units a day, and also turn out two 10½ and two 8½ pickup coaches and four tops a day.

The frame work is wood cut and put together by one group of men, then the aluminum covers are installed by another group. Dick Popham is the shop superintendent and A. C. Mayfield is foreman of the sheet metal shop.

Reinhart had the idea for manufacturing pickup coaches and trailer campers for about four years, but started up only last September.

The trailer campers are beautiful inside with complete accommodations, sink, water tank, gas stove, built-ins, everything to make the camper or traveler feel right at home.

They also are manufacturing walk-in coolers and walk-in freezers. Since this was something they were selling they found that none were being manufactured in the midwest and that they had to be shipped great distances. They also are manufacturing salad and pie cases for restaurants and hotels and which eventually will have national distribution. They are setting up to manufacture ready packed ice cubes, too.

In speaking of the pick-up coaches and trailer campers, Reinhart said the firm will modernize and redesign the units every year like cars, building different models, and will get the models ready for different shows which are held between Feb. 15 and March 15 each year.

Ann Landers Answers Your Problems

Dear Ann Landers: I am writing about a serious injustice. Our 14-year-old daughter is the guilty party.

Monica did not eat a bite of her supper tonight. She was nervous and uncommunicative. I went to her room as she was preparing for bed and I asked her what was wrong. She broke down and tearfully confessed that she had started an ugly rumor about a girl in her class.

The girl had been absent from school for two weeks. When she returned, Monica spread the word that the girl had had an abortion. The girl had actually gone west for her aunt's funeral. When the rumor got back to the girl she became so upset she had to leave school during lunch hour.

Monica does not know why she started the ugly story. She would give anything to square matters. Will you please tell me

Dear Crisis: Your daughter should go to the girl and to her parents, admit that she started the rumor and beg their forgiveness. Monica should then go to each of the people to whom she told the story, and confess that she lied. Make it clear there is no other way for her to "square matters."

Dear Ann Landers: I am a boy 22. When I joined the Navy right out of high school I left a lovely, understanding girl. Ellie was a good-looking, shapely chick and she looked great in a bathing suit. She promised to wait for me and she kept her word.

I got home last week—and there she was—all 200 pounds of her. Ellie had hinted in her letters that she had gained a little weight—"over-eating because of loneliness" was the way she put it. My mother kept writing that Ellie was getting awfully fat but mom always exaggerates so I didn't pay much attention to it.

Now I feel guilty because Ellie ate herself out of shape on account of me. I like her a lot. Ann—I may even love her—but fat women are repulsive to me. Would I be a dirty dog if I told her to get back in shape and call me up when she's a size 12 again?—COLOR ME COOL.

Dear Cool: If you drop this girl flat she may go to 300.

GR Rebekahs See Fashions From Three Eras

Green Ridge Rebekah Lodge met May 4, at the Lodge Hall with Mrs. DeLaine Upton, Noble Grand, presiding.

Seventeen members of the Lodge attended Friendship Night at Lincoln recently.

A Mother's Day program was presented, showing the fashions in women's clothes from 1900 to the present day. Mrs. DeLaine Upton was narrator and Mrs. Betty Upton, Mrs. Janice Sloan and Mrs. Geneva Baslee modeled. Mrs. Marjorie Egbert was pianist and played and sang songs popular during the three periods. Members joined in the singing. Clothes worn during the Roaring Twenties, Flapper styles and during the depression years were modeled. Included were wedding dresses, black bloomers, middy blouses, hats and shoes. At the close of the program, Mrs. Upton, Noble Grand, gave each woman a red carnation.

Decorations were pictures of old fashioned clothes hung on the walls of the lodge hall, by Mrs. Betty Upton.

Members decided to attend Memorial services at Green Ridge Baptist Church, May 31.

Green Ridge Rebekahs will have a "Fun Night" May 18. Members of neighboring lodges will be guests. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ridenour will be in charge of the Pot Luck supper and Mrs. Hilda Morgan, Mrs. Shirley Reed and Mrs. Paye Ridenour will plan the program.

The members voted to send money to IOOF lodges in the Alaskan disaster area.

Hilda and Jim Morgan served a dessert to 28 members.

300 Women Hear Address By Missionary

More than 300 Methodist women of the Sedalia District attended the spring meeting of Women's Society of Christian Service April 30 at Epworth Methodist Church.

The address of the day was given by Dr. R. V. Marble, missionary and former Missourian, now on furlough from India. Dr. Marble has spent 18 years in poverty-stricken India and told about needs in that area of the world. He stated that poverty was not just a problem of India, but one of the world, "for poverty no longer takes the way of submission, but is moving in a way of resistance and aggression."

Mrs. T. A. Huffine, president, presided. The theme of the program was "In Faith We Serve," which included a devotional by the Rev. Hugh Jones, host pastor.

Presentation of the World Federation of Methodist Women membership award, world banks, corsages for missions, special membership recognition, pledge and memorial services were made.

In keeping with the coming 25th anniversary, Mrs. Earl T. Crawford told of the history of WSCS, using as her subject,

Both Camps Use Wallace Vote Results

WASHINGTON (AP) — Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace's showings in two state primaries have poured more fuel into the Senate civil rights debate. But many senators say they have changed few if any votes on the bill.

Both sides in the debate have used Wallace's vote percentages in Wisconsin and Indiana to try to bolster their arguments.

Thus Southern senators have declared that the Alabama states' rights advocate ran up amazing vote totals clearly indicating a revolt in the North against civil rights legislation and Negro demonstrations.

The bill's supporters reply that, if the two primaries were to be regarded as a test of sentiment on the measure, they would be more than satisfied with the 70 per cent of the vote Wallace's opponents polled in the two Democratic primaries.

President Johnson didn't seem impressed. At his news conference Wednesday the President noted Wallace's share of the total vote of both parties in the primaries, saying: "He got 24 per cent of the vote in Wisconsin and a little less than 20 per cent of the vote in Indiana. I wouldn't think that would be any overwhelming endorsement of a man's record."

Although in the Senate debate "Our Heritage—Faith for the Future."

Mrs. George Hart, Missouri West Conference officer, told of changes to be made in the organization.

Mrs. George Lovercamp served as music director throughout the day with special solos by Mrs. Wilber Askew, Mrs. Dean Scott and Mrs. Julia Richardson, with Mrs. Hugh Jones at the organ.

Be Patient For Spurt In Economy

NEW YORK (AP)—Business will go on for several months being better than a year ago. But how much better than it is right now, that's the rub.

Expectations of a leveling off are based now on a number of things that will be glossed over by the official statistics yet to come which will picture how good things were in March, April and May.

Steel production has leveled off, for the time being at least. And the summer's normal slow-down seems as sure as anything can be in that cyclical industry. Steel's spring boom could make any summer doldrums harder to bear.

Auto production will continue strong, as dealers build up inventories prior to the wage talks due in early summer, and to the model changeovers which may come early this time and be more noticeable than a year ago.

Retail trade is flourishing in May as Americans deck themselves out for spring and summer and refurnish their homes. But any big pickup traceable to more take-home pay from the federal tax cut has yet to show. Many retailers are reported counting on only a modest pickup from this source at best. They expect to beat year-ago figures, but chiefly because of population changes and other factors under way before the tax cut.

Construction spending hit a peak in March and held level in April. Good weather in May should keep it high. But the new confidence that business is proclaiming in announcing future expansion plans probably won't hit the brick and mortar stage before autumn or later.

But Americans who have been encouraged to expect a real spurt in the economy just around the corner may have to be patient. And those who expect all the problems to be solved quickly are likely to be disappointed.

Soviets Suggest China Playing To Capitalists

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Communist party suggested today that Red China's leaders are playing up to capitalists in West Germany, Britain, France and Japan.

The allegation was made by Kommunist, the Soviet party's official theoretical journal, and was distributed in advance of publication by the government news agency Tass.

"When Chinese propaganda speaks about the struggle against imperialism," Kommunist declared, "it reduces it only to the struggle against the United States, bypassing their allies—West European and Japanese imperialists."

"Is it possible that the Chinese leaders are looking for partners among the monopolist circles of West Germany, Britain, France and Japan in the struggle against so-called 'modern revisionism'?"

The latter term is one the Chinese use in attacking Premier Khrushchev's policies, including his espousal of peaceful coexistence with the West.

Huge Fish Kill Could Force A Choice on River

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Huge fish kills on the lower Mississippi by potent insecticides may force a choice between the farmer and the river.

Scientists from the U.S. Public Health Service told a pollution investigating committee Tuesday that Endrin and similar pesticides are the villains.

The kills, involving millions of fish, have hit the lower Mississippi and the Atchafalaya River, which branches off the Mississippi through Louisiana.

The problem is: Banning the pesticides would make life more difficult for farmers, who use them to destroy pests that prey on crops.

Some scientists, and spokesmen for manufacturers of the insecticide, deny charges that the chemicals are responsible for the river damage.

The PHS scientists testified before representatives of pollution control agencies from Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee.

The chief said information received by police indicated two persons in a small black sports car may have seen the dog bite the girl and he asked those persons to contact police if they did.

Miller said the dog was believed to have been a cocker spaniel.

Police checked with the pharmacy in an effort to identify the woman, but that proved fruitless. Miller asked anyone with information concerning the dog bite incident to contact police.

five unions, but the issue of their jobs was tied up in the courts and was not part of the April 22 White House agreement that ended the threat of a nationwide strike. Five days later, the Supreme Court upheld the arbitration ruling.

The union spokesmen said the Pennsylvania Railroad had abolished jobs of men with more than 10 years seniority in violation of the arbitration ruling.

"We feel it is deliberate harassment," he said. "The pickets there are protesting what we feel is a lockout."

The seven-man federal arbitration board is meeting today to consider disputes over interpretation and application of its award.

A hearing before Holtzoff is scheduled for Monday on his restraining order. The present order is good until May 15.

The arbitration board last November ruled that the railroads could eventually eliminate 90 per cent of firemen's jobs on diesel freight and yard engines, but with various forms of compensation or seniority protection for most of the men.

Men with less than two years seniority can be terminated immediately with severance pay. Those with two to 10 years seniority must be offered comparable jobs at comparable pay. Men with more than 10 years on the job cannot be severed except by attrition.

have to keep it cleaned up." The board agreed not to employ the additional man at this time, but to make sure the park is cleaned up daily, using men on duty at the pump station.

It was brought out at the meeting that Well No. 13, the new well on the Community Center Road, had been under full test for about one month, and that 43-million gallons of water had been used, with little drop in the well's water level. The other 15-million gallons used during the past month came from other sources.

The board accepted the bid of Fischer's Concrete Service, of $1,900, for the installation of concrete steps leading to the catwalk over the spillway at Spring Fork Lake.

The board accepted the low bid of $44,000 submitted by the Minnesota Tank Manufacturing Co. for the construction of a 1-million-gallon water storage tank at the pump station. The estimate on this work made by the engineering firm of Black & Veatch had been $64,000.

The board accepted the recommendations of the Highway Department and Black & Veatch on the contract for installation of water mains on the East Broadway Urban Plan improvement, and awarded the contract to the B&W Co., of Topeka, Kan. This low bid had been under study for several weeks.

It was noted that sign-ups for moving water services on the East Broadway Urban Plan project are coming along nicely, with about two-thirds of the property owners affected already signed up. It was noted in the discussion that the property owner must sign the request for moving the service, otherwise the service will be cut off when the present main is abandoned under the new pavement.

The matter of weeds in Spring Fork Lake came up when a discussion about purchase of a tractor for the lake area came up. The tractor could have been used for cutting weeds around the lake, where the weeds abound when the lake level drops. Several methods of keeping the weeds under control were discussed, and it was finally decided to watch the growth this year, and hire someone to cut and burn the weeds if they become a nuisance. If this is not effective, the board agreed to discuss the purchase of the tractor at a later date.

After being low for two years, the lake rose to bank-full after the heavy rains a couple of weeks ago. Hundreds of tons of weeds, which had been growing along the banks for two years, came down the lake and lodged against the spillway, polluting the water and threatening to stop up the intake gates at the tower. Hundreds of man-hours were expended in forking the weed masses over the spillway.

Melvin Jones pretty well summed up the feelings of the board this way, "I don't want to spend money for a tractor if we don't have to. On the other hand we cannot have the weed situation we have had this year."

The board studied a new map of proposed improvements from the years 1965 to 1985. It was brought out that current expected revenues would take care of the costs of the proposed improvements.

The board voted to send Herb Taylor and Mrs. Taylor to the annual meeting of the American Water Works Association, to be held in Toronto, Canada, during the week of May 31, with "actual and necessary" expenses to be borne by the board.

As Taylor will be absent during the time of the regular board meeting, the meeting was extended to June 10.

At the beginning of the meeting Paul Hedderich, board president, read a letter of commendation he received from Mayor L. L. Studer. The letter reads: "I should like to commend the members of the Sedalia Water Board and the manager, Mr. Taylor, for the job that they have done so well, and sometimes under adverse circumstances, during the two years of my term as mayor of Sedalia."

The manner in which they have performed their duties, and on such a busy job, will and should deserve the commendation of a grateful community."

They are driving a Japanese vehicle similar to the American Army Jeep. One of them called it a Land Rover (English equivalent to Jeep), but Okada said the way it moved along he liked to think of it as a flea.

On the hood of the auto is a map of the United States with their tour route outlined and each evening they paint in a green strip alongside the black one to show how far they traveled that day. The Japanese flag is also painted on the hood.

On each side of the car is painted: "Tokyo 1964. Tokyo Olympic Messenger for Governor of Tokyo." A small U.S. flag is painted on one side of the printing and the Rising Sun on the other side.

From here their tour will take them to Jefferson City, St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, Albany, New York, New York City; Washington, D. C.; Richmond, Va.; Atlanta, Ga.; New Orleans, La.; Dallas, El Paso, Phoenix, Ariz.; and back to Los Angeles. The trip—a round-robin affair—is expected to terminate around June 20.

C. W. Mathieson, president of Town & Country Shoes, invited the boys to tour the local plant Thursday morning before departing for Jefferson City inasmuch as Okada is in the shoe business. Okada was delivered the invitation from Mathieson by this reporter and the trio was elated to be shown the warm hospitality and interest received in Sedalia.

Nine Liquor Licenses Are Null and Void

JEFFERSON CITY (AP) — Hollis Ketchum, Missouri supervisor of Liquor Control, Monday cancelled nine liquor licenses and suspended 10 others after hearings on alleged law violations.

Among suspensions were the set-up license and the 3.2 beer license of the Artesian Park near Herculaneum. The licenses were suspended for the rest of the licensed year, through June 30.

The spot has been under investigation on reports teen-agers were allowed to drink there.

The nine licenses were cancelled as null and void after the operators lost their retail sales licenses for failure to pay state sales tax.

Suspensions included: The 3.2 per cent beer license of the Mambo Club near Pacific, the rest of the licensed year for employing a person convicted of a liquor law violation.

The package license of Louie & Scy's Place near Hurdland, in Knox County, the rest of the licensed year for sale to a minor, selling less than original package, failure to stamp labels

Happy Home As a Child Is Credited

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Cora Hjertaas Stavig, America's Mother of the Year for 1964, is a gracious bundle of energy who found love in her parents' home and took it with her into her own.

"There was a happiness there, a spiritual richness that kept the family a close one," she said. "It has continued in my home."

Mrs. Stavig, who at 63 still loves to ice skate, believes her home life as a child laid the foundation for her selection Wednesday as Mother of the Year. She was named by the American Mothers Committee from among nominees from the 50 states, the District of Columbia and Puerto Rico.

She is the wife of Dr. Lawrence Stavig, president of Augustana College, a Lutheran school in Sioux Falls, S.D. She has raised four sons, and in the words of the citation:

"Foreign students from Hong Kong to Sierre Leone attend Augustana College and Mrs. Stavig becomes the foster mother of each of these."

Mrs. Stavig was born in Mayville, N.D., and met her husband while they were students at St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. Soon they will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary.

While her husband goes about his college duties, Mrs. Stavig busies herself entertaining visiting lecturers, faculty and students.

She lectures occasionally, and also serves as a marriage counselor.

The advice she gives most often to young married couples "is that it's very, very important to have the right sense of values."

"What used to be black or white has now turned for so many people into a shade of

Board of Trade Will Move To Plaza District

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Kansas City Board of Trade, thwarted in an attempt to build a new downtown home, decided Tuesday on a site in the Country Club Plaza district, 38 blocks south.

The board, one of the country's largest grain-trading organizations, had first intended joining with the Tenth and Main Corporation in construction of a downtown building of 20 floors.

An injunction by the Center Redevelopment Corporation, which opposed the new structure on grounds that not enough parking space was provided for, tied up further negotiations.

As a result, the board entered into an agreement to construct the $2 million building between 48th and 49th Streets on Main.

Robert P. Ingram, president of the Tenth and Main Corporation, termed the Board of Trade's decision "a serious blow to the economic welfare and to the future of all downtown Kansas City."

He added that his organization still planned to construct an office building at the 10th and Main site.

The Board of Trade has been at its present 10th and Wyandotte location since 1920.

Hike Retirement Age for Bishops

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The general conference of the Methodist Church has changed the maximum retirement age for bishops from 74 to 72.

The conference also voted Tuesday night to allow a bishop to retire at 65. His full salary and housing allowance, however, will continue only if he agrees to be available for assignment by the Council of Bishops.

Acquitted In Death

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Joe Bill Fowler, 24, was acquitted by a circuit court jury Tuesday of a felonious assault charge in the fatal stabbing last Dec. 14 of Dennis Roy Ahrendt, 21.

Ahrendt was stabbed during a gang fight outside a Springfield tavern. Charges against two other men were dropped earlier.

Anniversary Of Indochina 'War's End'

(EDITOR'S NOTE—Ten years ago today, Communist troops smashed their way across the smoking, twisted remains of a French outpost called Dien Bien Phu and jubilantly raised a yellow-starred flag. The Indochina war was, in effect, at an end.)

By PETER ARNETT

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—Frenchmen in Indochina still shudder when Dien Bien Phu is mentioned.

The drama of the last days of that lonely valley fortress has been etched nearly as deeply as Waterloo in French history.

"That was the end of our dream of staying here," a French businessman said in Saigon this week. "Yes, the end of our dream, but don't you think it may have been the beginning of a possible nightmare for the United States?"

The French dropped the ball in Indochina when Dien Bien Phu fell May 7, 1954, after 55 days and nights of fierce fighting. The 10,000-man French force defending the outpost in high mountain valley along the north Vietnamese border with Laos was captured.

It was just a matter of time until the Communists gained North Viet Nam on the bargaining tables at Geneva.

The French dropped the ball. But the United States picked it up and is still running with it. Some Frenchmen who remember the old days believe the United States is running toward its own Dien Bien Phu.

Hundreds of Frenchmen have settled in Saigon. They sit around Saigon cafes and comment sagely and often cynically on the progress of the new Indochina war that the United States is fighting in South Viet Nam. Shaking his head slowly, a veteran French journalist commented: "You — the United States—think you can beat the Viet, and succeed where we failed. But the war is progressing now as it did against us. The Viet Cong are showing fighting capability today that was not thought possible last year. Your Dien Bien Phu will come."

Americans doubt it. "The French set themselves up like pigeons at Dien Bien Phu," a U.S. officer commented. "They crammed 20 battalions into that valley and squatted like ducks. They were ready for the killing."

Military strategists have emphasized that the fall of Dien Bien Phu illustrated some basic military principles of military lore. One of these: Don't underestimate your enemy.

It was this factor as much as any that is believed to have led to the defeat at Dien Bien Phu.

Policeman Aids Nurse With Delivery

A police officer never knows what he may be called upon to do next. Seldom do the duty shifts fall into a routine pattern; there is always something new popping up. Monday night a couple of the night patrolmen in Marshall were busy trying to corral a horse which was making plenty of tracks from the park to the southwestern section of town.

But Tuesday, Assistant Chief of Police Jack Gentry was confronted with an entirely new experience of even greater propensity.

When Paul Coyle of Wakenda stopped off at the police station about 6:30 o'clock and told the radio dispatcher, Officer Clarence Masters, that his wife, Janet, was about to have their fourth child in his automobile, the police went to aid the distressed papa-to-be in his trip to the hospital.

Assistant Chief Gentry escorted the Coyle car out the shortest possible route but when he arrived there the officer quickly ascertained there was little time to spare.

Mrs. Coyle was not going to wait for a physician and soon a nurse, Lois Pomerence, was calling upon Assistant Chief Gentry for some help in the delivery of the baby inside the 1958 Studebaker automobile belonging to the Coyles.

A baby girl was the outcome of the efforts and both Mr. and Mrs. Coyle were mighty pleased, since their other three children are boys. Mrs. Coyle and infant daughter were somewhat belatedly admitted to the Fitzgibbon Hospital.

As for Mr. Coyle, he had a homeward trip to make by himself, but he too reflected much happiness with the new arrival and some quick response to his urgent appeal for help.

As for Nurse Pomerence and Assistant Chief Gentry, their services in time of need were much appreciated too.

This unusual episode was related by Marshall Chief of Police Bill Hartley who has justifiable pride that his department stands ready and willing to serve the public no matter what the task may be.

Dog Gets Lonely Inside Police Car

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—When a car horn kept blowing outside the Police Department Wednesday, Traffic Lt. Ed Bozarth looked out the window. And he took a second look.

A big German shepherd dog had his forefeet planted firmly on the horn of a police car. His master, Patrolman Lorman Adair, was inside the building. "He does it every once in a while," Adair said. "He doesn't like to be left alone."

In the United States, during colonial times, the only available method of dissolving a marriage was by act of a legislative assembly.

Pilot Grove Poppy Days Set May 22-23

Mrs. Charles S. Shay has announced that the American Legion Auxiliary of Pilot Grove has selected May 22 and 23 for Poppy Days. Proceeds of the sale will be used to aid veterans and children of veterans.

Says a spokesman for the organization, "To all of us the poppy is a symbol of life sacrifice. To the members of the auxiliary through many years it has lost none of its significance and the little red poppy worn over the heart is a silent message of thanks to those who did not come back from the wars."

LBJ Wants Action On His Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — While reporters' children squirmed in their seats and munched on cookies President Johnson passed on the kind of news that makes congressmen squirm: Act on the administration program or face a possible late summer recall.

"The people's business must come first," the President declared as he mixed business — replying to newsmen's question — with pleasure — playing picnic host in the White House back yard.

"I strive to please," Johnson said at one point Wednesday, and the setting proved it. Before him were tots to teen-agers, children of newsmen invited to the presidential news conference and plied with punch served up at gaily colored refreshment stands.

The newsmen's wives responded to the presidential invitation, too, and by White House count there were 1,080 people on hand — a record, of sorts, for the usually serious business of dealing with the press.

On the sober side, Johnson: Announced that Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara will make still another visit to South Viet Nam to see how the war against Communist guerrillas is progressing.

Asked labor to hold wage demands within the bounds of productivity increases and appealed to business to hold the price line or even cut prices.

Said he knows of no agreement with the Soviet Union that involves Soviet acquiescence to American spy plane surveillance of Cuba.

Hoped that the Senate will pass the civil rights bill by the end of the month or the early part of June so that Congress can turn to such administration programs as the antipoverty and medical aid measures.

Johnson said "some cynical people think there may be a deliberate slowdown in the Senate" and then went on to say that if there is one he would "seriously consider" calling Congress back after the Republican National Convention in July and the Democratic convention in August.

"I think that the people of this

Says Ear Tugging Criticism Unjust

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (AP) — President Johnson has been unjustly criticized for giving his two pet Beagles "affectionate ear tugs," says the president of the Vanderburgh County Humane Society.

The society has sent Johnson a life membership.

"I've seen men pinch their wives, and I think the women enjoy it," said Dorothy Lutz, who heads the society. "If the dogs get used to a few tugs, chances are they like it too."

country are entitled to have a vote on these important measures," he declared. "This administration is entitled to have a vote on them, and I am going to ask the Congress to vote them up or down."

But the afternoon was too sunny and the President too intent on playing the showman to remain on a serious track.

Asked about his health—he suffered a severe heart attack in 1955—he blended medical data with a jest: "They tell me that my blood pressure is 125 over 78, that my heart is normal, and that I don't have any aches and pains. I feel fine. I get adequate rest and good pay, and plenty to eat."

Without any prompting at all, Johnson reminded his audience here and those across the country who heard him on radio and watched him on television — of the now-famous dog-ears incident by announcing "I have today accepted lifetime membership in the Vanderburgh Humane Society of Evansville, Indiana."

He even remembered to poke fun at his press secretary, bushy-haired George Reedy, by telling the children: "Someone even suggested you should be accredited to the White House. Here you are. I think that that person ought to remain anonymous, at least until he has his hair cut again."

And he concluded the affair by having the children gather round to have their pictures taken with him.

Tax Cut Lightens Load On Some Charge Accounts

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Some of the mystery of what people are doing with their tax cut bonanza is lifted by government figures on personal debts.

A lot of them have used the increase in their take-home pay to lighten the load of their charge accounts and single payment loans. Others apparently have used some of the tax windfall to make larger than usual repayments on various types of installment credit other than for autos.

But another sizable group has been encouraged by the higher take-home pay to make down-payments on still more installment credit.

Merchants earlier had reported a little apparent rush of shoppers to spend the new money in the stores. Gains in retail sales had followed usual seasonal patterns and were otherwise in line with slowly increasing personal income totals from other than tax cut windfalls.

Banks had failed to report any great rise in savings accounts. The U.S. Treasury's sales of savings bonds was smaller in April than in March and also below the figure for April 1963. Then just where was the new money going?

A really notable change after the larger pay checks began to appear in March was in charge accounts and single payment loans. These tend to be smaller than the installment type debt. And a man with a few extra dollars in his pocket is likely to think of tidying up some of the pressing bills before tackling the problem of the regular monthly payments on household appliances, cars and the home mortgage.

Also, the tax cut benefits began showing up when many persons were calculating how much they still might owe in federal and state income taxes for last year. And, in many cases, the extra dollars came in handy in making first advance payments on this year's taxes. In that case, the Treasury gave and the Treasury took away without the individual noticing much immediate benefit.

Although repayments of instalment credit increased in March more than seasonally, the volume of new debt. Although repayments of installment credit increased in March more than seasonally, the volume of new debt advanced even more, so that the total outstanding hit another record at $53.8 billion. In many cases the same people may have reduced their outstanding bills and then splurged by adding commitments.

LBJ In State's 5th District Fight

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Has President Johnson got a favorite in the bitter Missouri 5th District congressional primary election fight between veteran Rep. Richard W. Bolling and County Judge Hunter Phillips?

Democratic County Chairman Joe E. Kelley has stated this is the biggest unanswered question among party faithfuls in a campaign "which could mean a real shift in the structure of the party here."

Along with this, Kelley said, are the questions whether Republicans are planning to cross-over in large numbers in an effort to unseat Bolling; whether Bolling can hold his always solid backing from organized labor; and whether the powerful Democratic factions now lined up with Phillips will be able to turn out their normally decisive majority.

President Johnson has said nothing publicly about the race. But, Kelley pointed out, the question is being asked privately because Johnson earlier this year appointed Mrs. Barbara Bolling, the congressman's recently divorced wife, assistant chief of protocol in the State Department.

"Does this mean that Johnson disapproves of Bolling?" Kelley said in an interview. "That's a question lots of people want answered. It would change lots of votes. It might change mine."

Bolling, now completing his eighth term in the House, obtained his divorce Jan. 7 after a marriage of nearly 19 years. The following day, Mrs. Jim Atkins of Dallas, Tex., obtained her divorce and she and Bolling were married two weeks later.

"The divorce itself is a big question in the election," Kelley said. "The women in my church are buzzing all the time about it."

Bolling supporters and union leaders already have expressed concern about the possibility of Republican cross-overs and are talking about an intensive effort to challenge such voting.

The 5th District is located entirely within Kansas City and voting machines are used in all elections.

Kelley said this made it im-

Extradition Of Fugitive Nazi Asked

BONN, Germany (AP)—West Germany formally asked the United Arab Republic today to extradite fugitive Nazi Hans Walter Zech-Nemtwich. But West German officials said they doubted the request would be granted.

The Bonn Foreign Ministry said the request for Zech-Nemtwich's extradition was made by the ambassador in Cairo.

The former SS lieutenant, convicted of taking part in a wartime massacre of Polish Jews, escaped April 23 from the Brunswick prison four days after he was sentenced to four years in prison. A jail warden, once his crony in the Nazi labor organization, had admitted he let Zech-Nemtwich slip out.

The first news of Zech-Nemtwich's whereabouts came from the picture magazine Der Stern, which said Tuesday he was interviewed by two of its reporters who spotted him in a Cairo hotel. Police said they had known for several days that he was in Cairo.

New Movies From Foreign Film Sites

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The new movies—

Two of the new spring crop of films were made by American companies in Spain and at least one of them might support the thesis of "Yankees, come home."

The better of the two exhibits is "The Thin Red Line," which is the first movie sponsored by the American Congress of Exhibitors. A.C.E., as it is called in the trade, is a group of theater men who are willing to provide backing in an effort to "increase the flow of quality product."

They are off to a good start. "The Thin Red Line" shows quality, even flashes of brilliance.

The script was adapted from the James Jones novel which drew its title from a Midwest saying. "A thin red line separates the sane and the insane." The borders of sanity are explored in two characters — a sensitive, fate-haunted private played by Keir Dullea ("David and Lisa") and a tough-spoken, seemingly sadistic sergeant, Jack Warden.

The situation shapes up promisingly as a modern Quirt and Flagg with Freudian overtones. Unfortunately the depths of character are never plumbed and what eventuates is standard war action, expertly done. If that's what A.C.E. wanted, it should be happy.

Dullea, especially in the early

Project Grants Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Public Health Service has approved grants for two Missouri projects.

A $35,000 grant will aid Dexter, Mo., in construction of a $117,000 sewage project, and a $11,145 grant goes to the Kansas City, Mo., Health Department to increase tuberculosis services.

The action was reported Tuesday by Sens. Stuart Symington and Edward V. Long, Missouri Democrats.

Resume Cable Laying

TOKYO (AP) — The American cable ship Long Lines has resumed laying the last link of the U.S.-Japan telephone circuit after fishing up and repairing a deep-sea cable which broke Monday.

Japanese officials said they received word the ship found the broken cable 68 miles east of Japan and lowered an anchoring device to retrieve it from a depth of 4,000 feet.

The accident is not expected to delay the opening of the Japan-Hawaii circuit scheduled for June 19.

Scream of Wrestlers Brings Cops on Run

OLYMPIA, Wash. (AP) — "If he heard a scream, it must have come from the TV when one of the wrestlers got an arm lock on the other guy."

That was the explanation Mrs. J.D. Morton, 75, gave Wednesday when Washington State troopers sped to her home to investigate a report from her son Francis in Albany, Ore.

Morton said he heard a scream while talking to his mother on the telephone, then the line went dead.

She said two calls from Francis had had bad connections.

"When he called the third time, I didn't pay any attention. Besides, I was watching wrestling on TV and didn't want to be disturbed."

Points on Freezing Fruits

Most fruits can be frozen satisfactorily, but the quality of the frozen product will vary with the kind of fruit, stage of maturity, and type of pack. Pointers on selecting fruit properly are given in the directions and must be followed carefully to be sure of a good frozen product.

Generally, flavor is well retained by freezing preservation. Texture may be somewhat softer than that of fresh fruit. Some fruits require special treatment when packed to make them more pleasing in color, texture, or flavor after thawing. Most fruits are best frozen soon after harvesting. Some, such as peaches and pears, may need to be held a short time to ripen.

Before Packing

All fruits need to be washed in cold water. Wash a small quantity at a time to save undue handling, which may bruise delicate fruits such as berries. A perforated or wire basket is useful. Lift washed fruits out of the water and drain thoroughly. Don't let the fruit stand in the water—some lose food value and flavor that way and some get water-soaked.

In general, fruit is prepared for freezing in about the same way as for serving. Large fruits generally make a better product if cut in pieces or crushed before freezing. Many fruits can be frozen successfully in several forms. Good parts or less perfect fruit are suitable for crushed or pureed packs. Peel, trim, pit, and slice fruit. It is best to prepare enough fruit for only a few containers at one time, especially those fruits that darken rapidly. Two or three quarts is a good quantity to work with.

If directions call for fruit to be crushed, suit the method of crushing to the fruit. For soft fruits, a wire potato masher, pastry fork, or slotted spoon may be used; if fruits are firm they may be crushed more easily with the food chopper. For making purees a colander, food press, or a strainer is useful.

Use equipment of aluminum, earthenware, enameled ware, glass, nickel, stainless steel, or good quality tinware. Do not use galvanized ware in direct contact with fruit or fruit juices because the acid in the fruit dissolves zinc, which is poisonous. Metallic off-flavors may result from the use of iron utensils, chipped enameled ware or tinware that is not well tinned.

Most fruits have better texture and flavor if packed in sugar or sirup. Some may be packed without sweetening.

In the directions for freezing, three ways of packing are given for fruits whole or in pieces—sirup pack, sugar pack, and unsweetened pack. Directions are also given for packing crushed fruits, purees, and fruit juices.

Your selection of the way to pack the fruit will depend on the intended use. Fruits packed in a sirup are generally best for dessert use; those packed in dry sugar or unsweetened are best for most cooking purposes because there is less liquid in the product.

Even though unsweetened packs generally yield a lower quality product than packs with sugar, directions in this publication include unsweetened packs whenever they are often needed for special diets. Some fruits, such as gooseberries, currants, cranberries, rhubarb, and figs, give as good quality packs without as with sugar.

Sirup Pack

A 40-percent sirup is recommended for most fruits. For some mild-flavored fruits lighter sirups are desirable to prevent masking of flavor. Heavier sirups may be needed for very sour fruits.

In the directions for each fruit, sirups are called for according to the percentage of sugar in the sirup. Below is a master recipe from which any of the sirups can be made. It takes one-half to two-thirds cup of sirup for each pint package of fruit.

Sirups for Use in Freezing Fruits

30-percent sirup means 2 cups sugar, 4 cups of water; 35-percent sirup means 2½ cups sugar, 4 cups of water; 40-percent sirup—3 cups of sugar, 4 cups of water; 50-percent sirup 4½ cups of sugar, 4 cups of water; 60-percent sirup—7 cups of sugar, 4 cups of water; 65-percent sirup—8½ cups of sugar, 4 cups of water. In general, up to one-fourth of the sugar may be replaced by corn sirup. A larger proportion of corn sirup may be used if a very bland, light-colored type is selected.

Dissolve sugar in cold or hot water. If hot water is used, cool sirup before using. Sirup may be made up the day before and kept cold in the refrigerator.

When packing fruit into containers be sure the sirup covers the fruit, so that the top pieces will not change in color and flavor. To keep the fruit under the sirup, place a small piece of crumpled parchment paper or other water-resistant wrapping material on top and press fruit down into sirup before closing and sealing the container.

Sugar Pack

Cut fruit into a bowl or shallow pan. Sprinkle the sugar (quantity needed given in the directions for each fruit) over the fruit. To mix, use a large spoon or pancake turner. Mix gently until juice is drawn out and sugar is dissolved.

Put fruit and juice into containers. Place a small piece of crumpled parchment paper or water-resistant wrapping material on top to hold fruit down in juice. Close and seal the container.

Unsweetened Pack

Pack prepared fruit into containers, without added liquid or sweetening, or cover with water containing ascorbic acid. Or pack crushed or sliced fruit in its own juice without sweeten-ing. Press fruit down into juice or water with a small piece of crumpled parchment paper as for sirup and sugar pack. Close and seal containers.

To Keep Fruit from Darkening Some fruits darken during freezing if not treated to retard darkening. Directions for such fruits list antidarkening treatment as part of the freezing preparation. Several type of antidarkening treatments are used because all fruits are not protected equally well by all treatments.

Ascorbic Acid For most of the fruits that need antidarkening treatment, ascorbic acid (vitamin C) may be used. This is very effective in preserving color and flavor of fruit and adds nutritive value.

Ascorbic acid in crystalline form is available at drug stores and at some locker plants, in various sized containers from 25 to 1,000 grams. (Crystalline ascorbic acid may be obtained also in powdered form.) One teaspoon weighs about 3 grams, thus there are approximately 8 teaspoons of ascorbic acid in a 25-gram container. In the recipes, amounts of crystalline ascorbic acid are given in teaspoons.

Ascorbic acid tablets can be used but are more expensive and more difficult to dissolve than the crystalline form. To use, dissolve ascorbic acid in a little cold water. If using tablets, crush them so they dissolve more easily.

High Throw Costs Cardinals a Game

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Has Roger Craig rubbed off on Bob Gibson?

Craig probably hasn't revealed any of his tough-luck techniques to his new St. Louis teammate, but it's been an unusually unsuccessful week for Gibson, who got too close to the target Monday night and Wednesday night couldn't get close enough.

It cost Gibson $50 Monday night when he fired a couple of beanballs at Philadelphia pitcher Dennis Bennett. It cost the Cardinals a victory Wednesday night when Gibson fired a peg over first base and let the winning run score in a 1-0 loss to Pittsburgh.

Gibson came on in relief of Ray Sadecki in the ninth after Roberto Clemente led off with a double. Gibson proceeded to walk Donn Clendenon intentionally. Bob Bailey followed with a bunt down the third-base line, and when Gibson threw wildly, Clemente raced home with the clincher.

The victory went to Bob Friend, who checked the Cardinals on six hits for a 3-0 record. Sadecki allowed only seven hits, but came up with an 0-3 record when Gibson extended his streak of misfortune.

Don Drysdale, meanwhile, got a 3-for-3 performance from catcher John Roseboro and broke a string of four straight losses to Houston pitcher Dick Farrell, hurling his third complete game in the Los Angeles Dodgers' 5-2 victory over the Colts.

Elsewhere in the National League, Wes Covington's two-run homer gave Philadelphia a 7-6 decision over Milwaukee, Leo Cardenas drove in four runs as Cincinnati walloped the New York Mets 12-4 and the Chicago Cubs whipped San Francisco 4-2 behind Larry Jackson's five-hit pitching.

Friend was in trouble twice—and Ken Boyer put him there both times. Boyer doubled in the fourth but was thrown out at home when he tried to score on a single by Curt Flood. In the seventh, Boyer led off with a triple, but stayed there as Friend retired Flood, Charlie James and Johnny Lewis.

Drysdale, now 3-1, had trouble only in the seventh when Walt Bond's fourth homer, a single by Bob Aspromonte and John Bateman's double produced the Colts' runs. Roseboro was instrumental in two Dodger runs. A walk, Roseboro's double and a sacrifice fly brought in a run in the second then Frank Howard's triple and Roseboro's single added another in the fourth.

The Braves held a 6-5 lead in the eighth when rookie Richie Allen got the Phillies started with a walk. Two outs later, Covington beat his former Milwaukee teammates.

Bay Area To Have 2 Grid Games

NEW YORK (AP)—The Oakland Raiders of the American Football League will buck the National League's San Francisco 49ers for the favor of Bay area fans on five Sunday afternoons during the 1964 season, the AFL schedule revealed today.

The AFL's 56-game schedule will open Saturday, Sept. 12, and runs 15 weeks through Sunday, Dec. 20. The championship play-off game between the two divisional winners will be played Saturday, Dec. 26, in the home city of the Eastern Division champion. Each team will have one open weekend during the season.

Oakland opens its home season Sept. 13 against the Boston Patriots. San Francisco is at home the same afternoon to the Detroit Lions. Other conflicting games are Sept. 27—Kansas City at Oakland and St. Louis at San Francisco; Oct. 25—Denver at Oakland and Minnesota at San Francisco; Nov. 15—Houston at Oakland and Green Bay at San Francisco; Dec. 6—Buffalo at Oakland and Los Angeles at San Francisco.

In the only other two-league city, New York, the schedule shows only one conflict in dates between the AFL Jets and the NFL Giants. On Sunday, Nov. 8, Buffalo plays the Jets at New York while Dallas visits the Giants at Yankee Stadium.

The championship game Dec. 26 and the Thanksgiving Day game will be televised nationally by the American Broadcasting Co. ABC also will televise Sunday afternoon games on a limited basis into cities where no AFL games are being played.

Smith-Cotton Takes Orioles In Baseball Winning Streak

By RONNIE COWAN

The Smith-Cotton Tigers continued their winning ways by defeating soundly the Orioles of Concordia Public High School by the score of 12 to 1. Jim Johnson, the Tiger hurler, went the route and posted a two hit, one hit, in the final inning, went for a home run. This was by Niernann, Concordia's catcher. In the fourth inning, Curt Beerman, centerfielder, drove one deep past the rightfielder. A good Tiger relay and peg to the plate canceled out the would-be home run, however. These two hits spoiled a perfect game for Johnson.

Smith-Cotton was held runless by the Orioles until the third inning. With one out, Jim Johnson drew a walk. Gary Cornell, currently experiencing a hitting streak, blasted a triple to up his runs batted in count. After Larry Ryan singled, Cornell then crossed the plate.

The Tigers went berserk in the top of the fourth, scoring nine runs. With one man out, John Johnson doubled to deep leftfield. Following Steve Young's arrival at first on a fielder's choice, Barry Morton cracked a two run triple. Jim Johnson then helped himself with a squeeze play bunt enabling Morton to score the fifth run. Gary Cornell then knocked Johnson home with a single. Russell Cusick, in a pinch-hitting role, drove home another run and reached first on a fielder's choice. Tom Hudson, also pinch-hitting, then lifted a double into rightfield, tallying 2 more runs. Hudson came home following a double by Ronnie Williams, who had seen his second time at bat in the inning. Then John Johnson crossed the dish for the final run in the stanza when he hit a long round-tripper to leftfield. This was Johnson's third circuit swat for the season.

Concordia calmed the Tigers down somewhat during the next two innings, but in the seventh inning, Sedalia wanted more. This time a missed third strike allowed Barry Morton to reach first. This proved to be an additional heartache for the Orioles as Morton produced the 12th Bengal run when he was sacrificed home by his teammates.

Johnson, in the seven innings he faced Concordia, fanned six Oriole batsmen, while allowing only two runners on the base paths.

Chisox Sweep Two From KC Athletics

By MURRAY CHASS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Dave Nicholson, reaching for even greater heights with his strikeout act this season, has added depth to the other half of his repertory.

The Chicago White Sox swinger is missing the third strike at a slightly faster rate than he did last season when he fanned a record 175 times.

But Nicholson went a long way Wednesday night toward showing his ability as a double threat as the White Sox swept a doubleheader from Kansas City 6-4 and 11-4.

Actually, it was the ball that went a long way—573 feet by Comiskey Park measurement. The hit was one of three home runs Nicholson clouted in the two games.

According to existing records, But Nicholson went a long only a 600-foot blast by Babe

Ruth at Detroit in 1926 went farther than Nicholson's home run over the roof of the left-field stands.

Nicholson's other two homers didn't go as far, but they still accounted for four runs and gave him four homers for the season.

At the same time, the 6-foot-2, 215-pounder gave equal treatment to his strikeout artistry, fanning three times for a season total of 22. If he maintains his present pace and bats the same number of times as he did last year, the 24-year-old right-hander would strike out 194 times.

Nicholson wasn't the only home run hitter Wednesday night. The New York Yankees got into the act as they split a doubleheader with Washington, winning the opener 9-2 and dropping the nightcap 5-4. Cleveland home runs stopped Baltimore 7-5. Detroit whipped Boston 6-3 and Los Angeles nipped Minnesota 4-3 in other American League games.

Nicholson's second homer in the first game, a two-run blow, climaxed a four-run rally and clinched the victory for Gary Peters. In the nightcap, Nicholson's two-run blast came during Chicago's five-run first inning. Jim Gentile had cracked a three-run homer for the Athletics in the first.

Floyd Robinson connected for the White Sox in the third while Minnie Minoso belted a three-run pinch homer in the seventh, putting the game far beyond Kansas City's reach.

The Yankees, held to three home runs in 13 games, erupted for five homers but still gained only a split with the Senators. Hector Lopez connected twice and Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris once each as New York glided to the first-game victory.

Mantle hit another in the second game, which the Senators won in the ninth when Chuck Hinton scored from third on catcher Elston Howard's passed ball. Hinton smashed a two-run homer in the first game and a three-run blow in the second.

On April 20 surgeons at the Medical Center at UCLA removed the growth in an operation that lasted 9½ hours.

"It was a complicated operation," Pardee said, "and my arm has been a little slow to heal. But my doctors say that I can expect a complete recovery. I just thank God we caught it in time."

Pardee had never met the late Houston pitcher, whose determination touched and inspired people throughout the country.

"I don't know how long I might have put it off, if I hadn't read that story. I felt fine, and you know how it is. When you're feeling good you hate to see a doctor."

Noticed Cancer In Time

Death of Athlete May Have Saved the Life of Another

HOUSTON (AP)—The death of one young athlete may have indirectly saved the life of another.

Mickey Herskowitz of the Houston Post, traveling with the Houston Colts, told from Los Angeles Wednesday the remarkable story that involves an almost chilling coincidence.

Two weeks ago Jack Pardee, former star fullback at Texas A&M and now a linebacker with the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, quitly underwent surgery for the removal of a malignant growth on his right forearm.

Pardee, now recovering at his home in the San Fernando Valley, is optimistic about the future, and will know within 30 days if he can report in July for the start of his eighth professional season.

On the morning of April 10, Pardee sat down to breakfast and turned to the sports section of a Los Angeles newspaper.

He read, with rising interest and a sense of uneasiness, of the death of Jim Umbricht, the Houston Colt pitcher, from cancer.

Pardee thought about the mole on his right arm. He had noticed it nearly a year ago, and last winter—in the middle of the pro football season—he knew he should consult a doctor.

But this meant missing a game and Pardee said he told himself he would attend to it when the season ended. The season ended. The weeks turned into months and the day came when he read of Umbricht's death after a brave but hopeless battle.

"The way the papers described it," Pardee said, "It sounded exactly like what I had. I made an appointment to see a doctor the next morning. Actually, my wife—Phyllis—had insisted on it."

Tests revealed the growth on Pardee's arm was malignant. His doctor told him he had melanoma—black mole cancer—the very form of the disease that had been detected too late in Umbricht.

On April 20 surgeons at the Medical Center at UCLA removed the growth in an operation that lasted 9½ hours.

"It was a complicated operation," Pardee said, "and my arm has been a little slow to heal. But my doctors say that I can expect a complete recovery. I just thank God we caught it in time."

Pardee had never met the late Houston pitcher, whose determination touched and inspired people throughout the country.

Rain, Field Pose Threat To Nicklaus

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Rain and a top-flight field posed a duplicate threat to Jack Nicklaus today as he opened his bid for the Colonial National Invitation Golf Championship.

Nicklaus, young powerhouse from Ohio, was rated the favorite as 72 players teed off in quest of a plump $75,000 purse.

A record $14,000 has been set aside for the winner who, the experts contend, will be Nicklaus, Masters champion Arnold Palmer or defending champion Julius Boros.

However, it was youthful Dave Ragan of Orlando, Fla., who stole the preliminary spotlight with a two-under-par 68 in a pro-amateur Wednesday. It netted him first-place money of $350.

Cloudy skies threatened all day to wash out the $3,500 apportioned after dumping showers intermittently for 48 hours. However, the threat produced little more than a good soaking for the treacherous 7,122-yard course.

A revised forecast called for more cloudiness with a possibility of thundershowers.

New Zealander Bob Charles and Dan Sikes of Ponte Vedra, Fla., deadlocked for second among the low pros with 69s. Each picked up $277 for his efforts.

South African Gary Player was a picture of frustration after he whipped in with a 69 only to discover that he had 15 clubs in his bag and was therefore subject to a four-shot penalty. The resulting 73 knocked him out of the money.

Nicklaus, the tour's leading money-winner with $46,150 officially, was among seven 70

Dominican Strike Losing Its Punch

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP)—A five-day-old strike by the country's 4,000 taxi drivers appeared losing some force and sympathy today.

With about 2,000 troops patrolling the streets, the only disorders Tuesday were minor stone throwing and burning of tires. Two persons were killed and dozens injured in weekend violence and about 700 persons were under arrest.

Santo Domingo depends on taxis for public transport, and there was growing concern that a continuance of the paralyzing walkout and disturbances might spawn an attempt to overthrow the country's ruling civilian junta.

The taxi drivers struck to protest recent junta decrees banning public meetings without official authorization, increasing duties on cars and other exports and authorizing police to seize drivers' licenses for traffic violations.

New Negro Motel Damaged by Blast

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—A Negro motel, still under construction, was heavily damaged by an explosion, Sheriff Fred Pickett said Wednesday night.

Residents of North Jackson had reported an explosion Tuesday night but sheriff's deputies had been unable to find the blast scene.

shooters who won $159 for the afternoon.

Nicklaus says the recurring back injury that bothered him in the final round at the Las Vegas Tournament of Champions has disappeared and he feels fine. He won the tourney by two strokes.

Home Run, Bunt Plays Major Role

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A home run that traveled 573 feet and a bunt that went only 20 feet played major roles as the Kansas City A's lost a doubleheader and the St. Louis Cardinals lost a single contest Wednesday night.

Dave Nicholson broke a 1-1 deadlock with his tape-measure home run and the White Sox went on to whip the A's, 6-4, in the opener of a two-light twinbill in Chicago.

The White Sox won the night cap, 11-4, on more home run hitting.

St. Louis got an encouraging pitching performance from Ray Sadecki, but wasted it with a wild throw on a sacrifice bunt in the ninth inning that gave Pittsburgh a 1-0 triumph in Pittsburgh.

Sadecki blanked the Pirates on five hits for eight innings, matching Bob Friend of Pittsburgh.

However, a lead-off double in the ninth by the Pirates' Bob Clemente brought in reliever Bob Gibson.

Gibson walked Donn Clendenon intentionally and Bob Bailey bunted, as expected. However, Gibson fielded the ball down the third base line and threw wild to first base, enabling Clemente to score with the winning run.

Some Say World's Fair Not Official

NEW YORK (AP)—Is it really the World's Fair?

Michelangelo's "Pieta" is there. So are Goya's two flawless "Maja" paintings from Spain, the white pristine minaret and a 1,200-year-old delicate fresco from the Sudan and the architectural gem of a dynastic Chinese temple.

These—coupled with rum and wildly decorated straw hats—enrich a fairgoer's jaunt to the international section of the New York World's Fair.

But a visitor—perhaps a bit fatigued after strolling through 139 exhibits—can also ponder: Where are the others? The "cheers" from Great Britain, the "Mona Lisa" smile of the French government, the sweets of Damascus, Syria, or a sign that reads: "From Russia, with love."

Why aren't they here? "No money," is the explanation of some countries. Other nations say the fair isn't "official."

"We planned to come. But later the Cabinet decided we couldn't possibly afford it," a spokesman for Turkey said. "Rent alone would have cost almost $200,000."

At the moment a square foot of Flushing Meadow rents for $3 a year, compared with the $1.10 of the Hannover, Germany fair. In the 1939 New York fair, no foreign government paid space rental for pavilions smaller than 10,000 square feet.

Sadecki now is 0-3.

Curt Simmons (2-2), who had been scheduled to start, will face the Pirates and Bob Veale (1-2) tonight.

Nicholson, whose fifth inning clout was one of the longest ever recorded in Comiskey Park, hit another homer with a man on in a four-run sixth off loser Moe Drabowsky.

It was Nicholson again in the second game as he paced a five-run first inning with another two-run homer. Floyd Robinson and Minnie Minoso also connected to offset a three-run blast by Jim Gentile that gave the A's a brief lead in the first inning.

The A's have an open date today.

Test River Diversion

JERUSALEM (AP) — Israel has started testing its Jordan River diversion project to channel irrigation water into the Negev Desert.

Officials said if several weeks of tests are satisfactory, the project will go into operation this summer.

Leaders of the 13 Arab states have warned they will oppose the project under "the legitimate right of self-defense."

They're making plans to divert headwaters of the rivers.

Labor Dispute Ends At Ft. Leonard Wood

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A labor dispute that caused Ft. Leonard Wood to be picketed for two weeks last month has been temporarily discontinued by a federal court agreement reached here.

U.S. Dist. Judge Richard M. Duncan approved an accord between the NLRB, the Plumbers and Pipefitters Union and the St. Louis Building and Trades Council.

GAS SERVICE MOVE—This week the Missouri Public Service Co. began moving gas meters out of basements on the north side of Broadway and connecting the services to the new intermediate-pressure gas main installed in this area last winter. A previous story published outlined the meters to be moved. This work is being done in conjunction with the Urban Plan improvement in this area. Above, workers dig by hand under the sidewalk in areas not possible to reach with the ditching machine shown in the background. Note the sod has been neatly placed along the ditch, and will be replaced as soon as the new gas line is installed.

Mothers Day Treats At The Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Turkey is a tempting feature for Mothers Day dinner, as heavy production fills supermarkets and invites lower prices this weekend.

Or lucky mothers who are being taken out to dinner may find it wise to buy at bargain prices and freeze them to serve say, on Fathers Day.

Other main courses attractively priced in most stores this weekend include broiler-fryers, beef, lamb and pork. Eggs continue to be another economy feature.

Beef attractions include ribs, round and sirloin steaks and roasts.

Pork loin roasts are a key feature in many shops. West Coast markets have shaved 2 to 3 cents a pound at wholesale. In the Midwest, bacon, spare-ribs and chops are in the spotlight.

Among eggs, large sizes offer the best buy.

Produce counters are replete with spring offerings.

Fresh strawberries from early gardens in the Southwest are appearing at modest prices.

Watermelons are also available at lower prices than usual.

Cantaloupe and honeydews are other attractions, while limes, lemons, oranges, bananas, grapefruit, rhubarb and avocados compete for the shoppers' eye.

Among vegetables, green peppers, green beans, artichokes, corn, cucumbers, lettuce, onions, carrots and celery are top attractions.

Ask Ouster Of McClintock

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—A resolution is before the Argentine Senate requesting the government to expel U.S. Ambassador Robert McClintock because of a comment he made about the cancellation of Argentine contracts with U. S. oil companies.

The resolution, submitted Tuesday night by five leading senators from President Arturo Illia's Peoples Radical Civic Union, accused the ambassador McClintock had planned to leave Argentina Sunday. He is being replaced by Edwin Martin, former secretary of state.

The senators were frate over an article Saturday in the newspaper El Territorio, of Posadas, which quoted McClintock as saying U.S. investments in Argentina would end because of the oil contract cancellations. The U.S. Embassy on Mon-

Community Teachers Elect Lamm

The Sedalia Community Teachers Association, Sedalia's largest professional organization, during its last meeting of the year Tuesday afternoon at Smith-Cotton High School turned over its affairs to new officers for the coming 1964-65 school year.

Mrs. Marjorie Uhr, outgoing president, handed the gavel to Don Lamm, Jr., incoming president. Other officers of the organization are Mrs. Edith Donath, vice president; Miss Barbara Freund, secretary and John Hays, treasurer.

Lamm holds an A. B. degree in economics from the University of Michigan with additional study at Central Missouri State College in social studies and English. He teaches contemporary issues, economics and Journalism at Smith-Cotton and is working on a Master of Science degree in education with emphasis in social studies and political science at CMSC. He has been past treasurer of the CTA and is director of publicity at Smith-Cotton High School.

Mrs. Donath holds two degrees, a Bachelor of Science in education in music and a Master of Science in education with emphasis in music. She is now working on her Specialist degree in elementary education at CMSC. She has had 12 years teaching experience and now teaches at Whittier School. She and her husband, Don Donath, are directors of the summer camp program (Camp Bob White) at Knob Noster State Park.

Lamm and Mrs. Donath will both represent the local organization at the National Education Association Convention at Seattle, Washington, this summer from June 27 to July 4.

During the business portion of the meeting, Mrs. Vivian Kindred read the minutes of the previous two meetings of March 21 and April 21, and read some communications. Don Lamm, Jr. gave the treasurer's report. Year end reports were given by Mrs. Virginia Walch of the flower committee, Mrs. Ardelle Jones of the historical committee, Mrs. Elsie Dexheimer of the program committee, Mr. Ralph Van Der Kamp of the N.E.A. Life Membership Committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Miller of the Resolutions Committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Yurasich of the Retired Teacher's Committee, James Braden of the social committee, Mrs. Christine Killion of the Teacher's Education and Professional Standards Committee, Mrs. Dorothy Ault of the Teachers Welfare Committee, and John T. Sheet Music Store Stocks Old Songs

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—This is Hollywood Boulevard—

Looking for a copy of a song you loved years ago? Chances are you could find it at Ring's sheet music store on Cherokee Avenue just around the corner from the Boulevard.

For 20 years the shop has been operated by Stanley Ring, a man who is short of stature and long of memory. Necessarily so, in order to hunt up songs from among the 450,000 different titles he stocks.

"How many songs do I know? Goodness, I have no way to figure," he says. "But I can find most requests, once I get the title straight. Trouble is, people give me the wrong titles."

The narrow store seems Dickensian with its dim lights, water-stained walls and carton upon carton of old sheet music stacked in every corner. Ring, 64 fits the premises well; he is cheery-eyed, with cheeks that puff up when he smiles and spectacles that keep sliding down his long nose.

Born in San Francisco, he started his long career with songs as a singing newsboy in New York City. He debuted in an Elsie Janis show at 10 and spent years in vaudeville with comedy sketches. When vaudeville died, he turned to a sheet music store in Los Angeles and it did well until a fire consumed his total assets.

He wanted to open a shop in Hollywood, but his fire insurance agent had skipped. Although he had no knowledge of horses, Ring placed $2 bets on longshots with bookies all over downtown L.A. In 30 days he had made $400, enough to start the Hollywood store.

"This place has turned a profit from the day I opened on Nov. 15, 1943," said Ring. The reason appears to be that his collection of old sheet music is unique.

Six Area Students Recognized by CMS

Six area Central Missouri State College students and high school seniors at Warrensburg have been chosen for recognition by CMS this spring.

Miss Joan Gills, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gills, 114 West 14th; Miss Terrissa Keith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Keith, Syracuse; Eldon Kreisel, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kreisel, Houstonia, are among 55 students participating in the fall honors program. They are doing accelerated work and will be allowed to do considerable independent study and research.

Miss Gills is a chemistry major; Miss Keith, an art major; Mr. Kreisel, a mathematics major.

Scholarships to CMS have been offered to Miss Mary Louise Anderson, Miss Mary Anne Bradhorst and J. R. Greer, all graduating high school seniors at Hughesville.

Founder's Son Talks To Beta Sigma Phi's

Members of the five chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, Sedalia, entertained their husbands and guests at a dinner - dance at the Old Missouri Homestead, the evening of May 2.

Walter "Bill" Ross, Kansas City, son of the founder of Beta Sigma Phi, told of his father founding the sorority in Abilene, Kan., 33 years ago with seven members. It now has grown to more than 175,000 members in 14 countries. The purpose of the sorority, he said, is not only friendship, but to aid cultural advancement of its members

Carnation Sale Set

Sedalia War Mothers will conduct their annual sale of carnations Friday and Saturday and Mayor L. L. Studer has declared the dates as Carnation Days.

"Sale of these carnations will provide assistance to our needy and disabled veterans, who offered to give all they had to give in the defense of our country," Studer said.

and through them, help their communities grow. After dinner, a dance was held with music furnished by the Dickie Phillips Band.

one day longer

Some people are born bread-squeezers. They squeeze one loaf after another looking for the freshest. Then one day they discover Holsum... and ZOWIE! Holsum's not just fresh when you buy it — but it's baked to stay fresh one day longer after you get it home. Try Holsum once and you'll give up squeezing altogether (or at least taper off!)

A Jog Needs a Jog.....

Is $3,755.00 too much to pay for straightening out the jog in West Third street at the Park avenue intersection and entrance to Liberty Park?

That's the estimate reported by Councilman Walter Jessee at city council meeting.

No one can tell whether substitution of a slow curve for a jog at that location will reduce the traffic hazard there. Now a frequent tendency of motorists is to hit the jog without reducing speed in order to get the effect of a roller coaster ride. Little attention is paid to the fading, serpentine yellow line which is supposed to mark the lane division. A slight miscalculation by a driver can throw his vehicle out of control.

Councilman Jessee suggested four-way stops signs might help in solution of the problem instead of undertaking expensive street modifications.

Other suggestions have included a reduced speed zone at that location. Admittedly 30 miles is a bit fast.

Upshot of the discussion of the matter in council was its referral to the traffic committee for study and recommendation. This seems quite sensible in view of the fact there are so many alternatives, some expensive, some less so, in making Third street and Park avenue a safer area for motor traffic than it has been for many years.

With summer months ahead, Liberty Park will again be the scene of baseball, tennis, picnics, swimming, and other recreational activities. Naturally the traffic to and from there will be increased out of all proportion to what it has been during the winter and spring.

Therefore, the traffic committee is encouraged to give this problem early attention.

In the meantime it behooves Sedalia and area motorists to exercise more care in operating their vehicles past the intersection in question. This could be the most logical solution to lessening the hazard without expenditure of a cent of city money — voluntary slow downs and more alertness on the part of every driver.

But, no, we've got to have tighter regulations and enforcement of them. This seems to be what the motoring public wants — more legal restraints and less voluntary compliance.

Think-Talks: Look-Sees In Viet Nam

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The sour war in Viet Nam is baffling American officials but, in trying to figure it out, they must be setting a record for think-talks and look-sees.

Now President Johnson is sending Defense Secretary Robert McNamara hustling back to Viet Nam again for another look, his fifth in 12 months, plus five he made to Honolulu for conferences on how to win the war.

Squads of other officials have been over to one or both places, including Gen. Maxwell Taylor, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; President Johnson when he was vice president; and Atty.

Gen. Robert F. Kennedy. Johnson and Kennedy made Viet Nam a stop on their world tours.

The war itself has been going from bad to worse, making the optimism of some of these eminent American visitors look a little incredible in retrospect.

Johnson, for instance, was so carried away he made 15 impromptu speeches and dashed around shaking hands with the crowds the way he does now with tourists at the White House.

He sized up the dictatorial President of Viet Nam, Ngo Dinh Diem, and promptly compared him with Sir Winston Churchill, although even then Diem was far from universally beloved. This was in May 1961.

(On Nov. 1, 1963, the Vietnamese showed how much they disagreed with Johnson by assassinating Diem and his brother in a military coup which took over the government.)

President Kennedy knew it was not perfect setup. In October, 1961, he sent Taylor over. Within a month Diem announced he would put in reforms. They were badly needed. And then he forgot them.

McNamara seemed to express the most optimism about a war which clearly wasn't going well, although this country had pumped in about $5 billion in aid over eight years, has 15,000 troops there, and over 220 Americans have been killed.

This is a list of the trips and the sayings:

January, 1962 — McNamara's first trip to Honolulu for an American military conference on Viet Nam. He came away saying he felt "encouraged."

February, 1962 — McNamara announced a new U.S. military Kennedy was in Viet Nam saying "we have great confidence in President Diem."

February, 1962 — While McNamara was in Hawaii, Robert Kennedy was in Viet Nam saying "we have great confidence in President Diem."

May, 1962 — McNamara took his first plunge into Viet Nam and left saying he felt "tremendously encouraged."

July, 1962 — Despite his encouraged feeling, he went to Honolulu for another think-talk with the U.S. military. He came away a little gloomier, thought now winning in Viet Nam might "take years rather than months"

September, 1962 — This time Taylor to Viet Nam. He told reporters the "Vietnamese are on the right track." If so, they sure got off it later.

June, 1963 — By now Viet Nam was in emotional flames made bright by Buddhist monks protesting Diem's treatment. Kennedy sent Henry Cabot Lodge over as ambassador to see what he could do.

September, 1963 — McNamara and Taylor back to Viet Nam. On their return they reportedly told a Senate committee: "We are winning out there" and things "are progressing very well on both the military and political fronts."

November, 1963 — This was the month in which McNamara and Taylor may have wished they hadn't made that statement in September. Diem and his brother were assassinated. President Kennedy was slain in Dallas, and the new President Johnson said he would carry on Kennedy's program in Viet Nam.

Just two days before Kennedy's killing, McNamara, Taylor and a whole raft of top officials were in a Honolulu talk-think on Viet Nam.

December, 1963 — McNamara back to Viet Nam. Once more: "Optimistic."

January, 1964 — The military junta which got rid of Diem was thrown out by Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, who took charge.

March, 1964 — McNamara back to Viet Nam. Not so sunny this time, said "the path to victory may be hard." And no wonder.

Last weekend Red frogmen were credited with sinking a U.S. aircraft ferry.

May 6, 1964 — Johnson announced another McNamara trip to Viet Nam.

ARKANSAS GAZETTE: Skimping Victuals. —A member of a Russian delegation that visited this country reported at Moscow that he was almost starved, in our land of abundance, and lost nearly nine pounds in weight, while a colleague had to pull in his belt six inches.

The Russian visitors were farmed out in private homes. The one who made the squawk was the guest of a Boston school teacher who lived in a "converted horse barn." He seems to have had toast and coffee for breakfast, along with an occasional egg.

Those skimpy victuals didn't satisfy the guest, who by trade is a miner.

There is an old tale about a wit who was invited to have dinner at the home of a woman who had a name for being parsimonious in the serving of food. When she told him that she was glad to have had him at dinner and asked, "When will you dine with me again?" he replied, "Immediately."

Johnson Has Some Staff Difficulties

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—An incident took place inside the White House the other day illustrating the difficulties of a two-president staff—the staff inherited from the late President Kennedy and the new semi-staff appointed by LBJ.

President Johnson has asked all the Kennedy staff to remain, has been quite sincere about it.

However, real fact is that most of the White House staff were picked by Attorney General Kennedy, not by the late president, and it's no secret that they have divided loyalty. Johnson himself has never complained about this, but some of his close friends have.

The other day, for instance, Ken O'Donnell, appointment secretary for both President Kennedy and now President Johnson, went up to New York without asking permission or even telling the president he was going. He simply took off.

President Johnson murmured something about being surprised that Ken wasn't around to handle appointments, but did not make an issue of the incident.

Meanwhile, relations between the president and Attorney General Kennedy continue pleasant, certainly on the surface. Johnson goes out of his way to defer to him. But when LBJ flew to New York for the funeral of Mrs. Robert Wagner, wife of the mayor, instructions came from the White House to the mayor's office not to put the president in the same seating arrangement with the attorney general.

Looking Backward

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Dr. S. T. Neill, dentist, of Clinton, was elected Head Consul of the Missouri Head Camp, Woodmen of the World, at the closing session of its convention in Sedalia. E. L. Zoellig, of Sedalia, was elected Head Adviser.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Fifteen trees were planted on the lawn of Prospect school (Mark Twain) with appropriate ceremonies, the first being named after Mrs. Sarah E. Cotton who was present. Some years ago she donated a site for extension of the school grounds. O. B. Poundstone, as representative of the American Legion, addressed the assembled pupils after which he dedicated the next three trees planted in honor of three Prospect school boys killed in the World War: Carl Holland, Benjamin Wright and Emil Hirsh. The ceremony was then turned over to Mrs. Herbert Schrankler, president of the Parent Teachers Association who named the remaining trees after the present faculty: Misses Nina K. Slater, principal, Helen Donnelly, Gertrude Glassburn, Mattie Clark, Mary Bast, Florence Catheman, Mary Sutton, Hattie Russell, Leona Lennartz, Estelle Coates and Edna Snell. Music was provided by the school orchestra led by Dill Dow.

hold budgets, income taxes and foreign relations.

to a golden crisp. But not enough Republicans showed up, and more than 1,200 box suppers were left unopened. At $1.55 a box, the loss was estimated at over $1,800.

But the financial flop wasn't as bad as the psychological flop. What really worries Republican leaders is that the event was supposed to be a rip-roaring Republican campaign kick-off.

Four years ago, screaming partisans jammed the hall and consumed every available chicken. This year, the Washington Coliseum's 7,000 seats were about half empty. Only Republican presidential candidate who showed up was Harold Stassen, and some Republican ladies began to snooze in the middle of the rally.

Afterwards, the crowd shuffled quietly into the night with hardly a sound, except for a few voices that quavered: "We want Barry."

CHINA'S BOMB—Soviet authorities have assured western diplomats privately that Red China can't possibly become a nuclear power before the 1970's. They confided that the Chinese government had demanded a sample atomic bomb, but the Kremlin had turned them down cold. Though the Chinese may be able to explode an atomic bomb before 1970, the Russians claim they won't be able to produce more than a few experimental models for some time.

LODGE IS LOYAL — Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge assured Secretary of State Rusk during their recent conference in Saigon that he has no intention of leaving his post until the last minute before the Republican convention. His personal relationship with Gen. Nguyen Khanh, the South Vietnamese strongman, is so close that it would be difficult to fill his shoes. Lodge considers it his duty to stay on the job as long as possible (though he considers the presidency an even higher duty).

We the Women

It's Great Age for Women

By RUTH MILLETT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

"We're lucky we're women now. My mother thought she was an old woman at 73," a quick-witted, lively, woman of 73 recently told a group of clubwomen.

We are lucky we're women now, at a time when all around us women in their 70s and 80s are showing us how rich and rewarding those years can be, if a woman just keeps right on going instead of giving up and sitting out the good years.

These active older women are living proof to all women that the 70s and 80s can be good years for any woman with reasonably good health and enough gumption to make them so.

If you'll notice, most of the up-and-coming older women you meet have a number of things in common.

They refuse to give up their homes to move in with a married son or daughter, where a rocking chair is waiting for them.

They keep up with what is going on in the world, instead of living in the past.

They use their brains to figure ways to make their household chores easy enough for them to handle — conserving their strength for the things they enjoy.

They take pride in being well-groomed and fashion-conscious. They enjoy people of all ages, and have no desire to spend all of their time with those of their own age group.

They enjoy being helpful, and don't want to be told constantly that they have reached an age where they should let others do for them.

That's the kind of gumption it takes for a woman to remain active long past the time when women used to consider themselves old ladies. We're lucky to be women at a time when a generation of women has already showed us that it can be done.

Iron Clips in Scrapbook

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Iron clippings in a scrapbook instead of pasting them in. First, cut a piece of clean, thin plastic (the kind used in a cleaner's garment bag) the same size as the clipping. Fit flat between the page and the clipping. Iron the clipping down with a hot iron but not hot enough to scorch the paper. The clipping will be smooth and is there to stay.—MRS. G. F. G.

GIRLS—Do try this, it's fun.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY — When my leather key ring wore out, I put all my keys on a shower curtain ring until I got a new one. It held a lot of keys and was easy to find in my purse.

I keep cleanser handy in the bathroom so after I have taken a shower it is easy to scrub down the shower stall walls and floor while I am still in it.

The shower is a good place to spray large dusty house plants. Just set them in the shower, turn the cold water on gently and then let them stay there to dry.—MRS. F. D. C.

GIRLS—This last hint is fine if you use some sort of precaution to prevent dirt from going down the drain and clogging it.

—POLLY

DEAR POLLY—I have found a good use for a no-longer-needed collapsible baby carriage, the kind that has a lift-out plastic "cradle." Discard the top hood, put your wet clothes in the "cradle" and carry it by the two side handles out of doors to the carriage frame. Wheel to the line and there is no bending down to the ground necessary to get your wash out. The buggy has larger wheels than the average clothes cart and is easier to move around. Take this bit of advice from a girl with four little short cuts.—MRS. L. M.

DEAR POLLY—I was recently invited to a baby shower and each guest was asked to bring a baby picture of herself. These were numbered by the hostess and then passed around. This made a very interesting contest to see which guest could make the most correct identifications.—MRS. B. T.

DEAR POLLY—Drying silver or stainless steel flatware with a dish towel in each hand will eliminate those telltale fingerprints.—DOROTHY

Trichinosis, Long Known, Still Takes Heavy Toll

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.,
Newspaper Enterprise Association

When the cause of a disease and effective preventive measures have been known for more than 100 years, it should come as a shock to learn that some 27 million persons in the United States have that disease. Yet this is the case with trichinosis, an infestation with a microscopic worm. Fortunately, it is so mild in most of the victims that they don't know they have it.

In man it is caused by eating raw or inadequately cooked products from hogs which are infested with trichinae.

The worm in a resting stage becomes encysted in the animal's muscles and, when the pork is eaten, the digestive juices dissolve the cysts and the worms become active in the intestinal tract. Although they do not harm directly they leave behind myriads of youngsters (larvae) that penetrate the intestinal wall and are carried in the blood or lymph stream to the muscles of the victim.

There they in turn go into a resting stage but if there are enough of them they set up an inflammatory reaction. This causes the victim to have fever, weakness, headache and soreness in the involved muscles. A massive infestation may even cause death or death may be caused by a high concentration of the parasites in the heart muscle.

Until recently there was no cure for this disease but thiabendazole, a drug that has long been used to treat a variety of infestations in animals. It has now been tried on a human subject with excellent results. The best treatment, however, is still prevention and this consists of refusing to eat any pork products that have not been thoroughly cooked. Of course, pork found on government inspection to be infested is condemned.

There are still some persons who have a decided preference for raw pork and even they can protect themselves by storing the meat in a deep freeze at 0 degrees for 24 hours or at 5 degrees for three weeks.

Q—I have been taking Ortho-novum pills for 3 months and have noticed that I have to urinate frequently. Does this drug harm the kidneys?

A—Ortho-novum is a synthetic steroid hormone. With the proper dosage it causes no serious side effects in normal persons but if urinalysis how that you have a kidney disease you should discontinue its use as it may aggravate the condition.

Exam Jitters Are Worry

By SUSAN LIGHT
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Exam time is almost upon us again. I'm not sure who dreads it the most—the kids or I. They always go into an emotional tailspin and come out of it with barely passing grades.

Both my teen-agers study until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning. Then they drag off to school exhausted, with bloodshot eyes and ragged nerves. What can I do to help these poor kids? Both are above-average students the rest of the school year.—WORRIED MOTHER.

Answer: Exam jitters are

Banks Appeals Term

MONTREAL (AP) — Hal C. Banks, deposed kirkpin of the Canadian waterfronts, has appealed a five-year prison sentence for conspiracy in the beating of a rival union official.

The Quebec Court of Appeals received the appeal Tuesday but declined to fix bail until it studied the trial transcript.

Banks, former president of the Seafarer's International Union of Canada, was convicted in connection with the beating in 1957 of Capt. Henry Francis Walsh, an organizer for the Canadian Merchant Service Guild.

nothing to sneeze at. According to at least one estimate, as many as 20 to 25 per cent of high school and college students suffer from temporary emotional disturbance during exam time. The consequences can be serious.

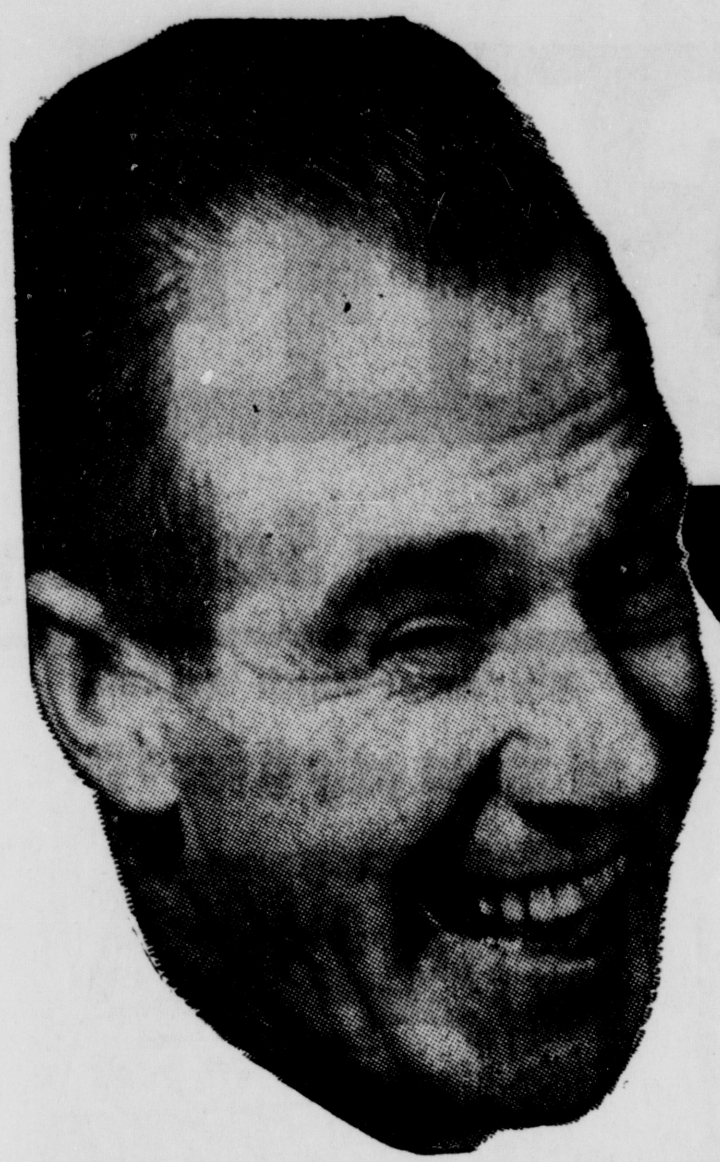

Various professional remedies have been used for severe cases, ranging from tranquilizers to hypnosis.

For a simple home remedy, however, I suggest you try to take a more objective and positive attitude toward exams yourself. If you remain calm, cool and optimistic during the ordeal, your children may absorb some of your equanimity.

Encourage them to start studying two or three weeks in advance, using the night before only for last-minute brush-ups. You may help in some subjects by asking them review questions—even if you don't know the answers yourself. Giving the answers orally will help crystallize the material in their minds and increase their self-confidence.

Insist your teen-agers get eight hours' sleep every night of exam week. Time out for their favorite television program and a snack may be time well spent, but limit telephone calls to a few minutes. Hashing over an exam with another panicky student only increases anxiety.

If your family is religiously inclined, use your faith. A few moments of silent prayer before an exam has wrought more A's than this world dreams of.
